ʿItr.

Arabic for perfume

What lingers in the room after the one who wore it has left.

AMAR was born to bring authentic Arabian perfumery to Europe, far from diluted, anonymous versions. A few houses, chosen one at a time: for every fragrance we know who makes it, where, and for how long.

TAIF AL EMARAT.

We don't follow trends. We tell heritage.

Founded in 2003 to capture the beauty of lily, jasmine and orange blossom, the house has woven oud, amber, musk, saffron and incense into its compositions. Rare raw materials selected by hand and organic sugarcane alcohol, for a clear and lasting trail. Today it is the scent of a nation.

THE

DUBAI

COLLECTION

Wear the spirit of a city.

FOUR FRAGRANCES. FOUR DUBAI LANDMARKS.

THE LINE

Where vision shapes the horizon.

In a land where vision shapes the horizon and ambition is etched into the skyline, rich heritage and futuristic dreams unfold together. This is the essence of the United Arab Emirates, a story captured in liquid form.

The Dubai Collection is the newest and most precious collection by Taif Al Emarat: four fragrances, each devoted to one of the landmarks that define the city. Olfactory postcards from a place that is not just a city, but a way of thinking.

A journey through the heart of the Emirates, from the calm waters of the Gulf to the highest clouds.

THE BOTTLE

SEVEN SIDES. A GOLDEN DAGGER.

A vessel that tells, in glass and gold, the founding of a nation.

VII

THE SEVEN ANGLES

The bottle's seven facets are the seven emirates. Together they form a single vessel, holding the shared spirit and ambition of the United Arab Emirates.

THE GOLDEN KHANJAR

The golden cap takes the shape of the khanjar, the traditional dagger that stands for honour, courage and pride in the Emirates. Protection and legacy: the values the nation was built on.

To hold it is to grasp a piece of the Emirates' soul.

FOUR LANDMARKS. FOUR FRAGRANCES.

Each fragrance is a gateway to one of Dubai's architectural wonders, with its own feeling and atmosphere.

ETIHAD.

Seven emirates, a single breath.

In Arabic, Etihad means union. This collection tells of the moment desert, coast and mountains stopped being separate lands and became one nation: the dawn of a vision, the soul of tradition, the clarity of ambition.

Each fragrance is a chapter of that story. From the Cambodian oud of UAE Oud to the quiet sandalwood of Year of Zayed, dedicated to the man who saw possibility where others saw sand: scents to wear as a statement of belonging.

GCC

Where the heart travels ahead of borders.

Long before borders were drawn, one spirit crossed the Gulf: carried by trade winds, whispered in poetry under desert stars, offered hand to hand with coffee and dates.

The GCC collection is an olfactory journey through these sister souls. Frankincense rising from a majlis in Muscat, the spices of a Kuwaiti souk, the pearl of Bahrain, the realised dream of Qatar. Seven fragrances, seven verses of the same poem.

TAIF · SHADES

We are not one thing. We are a thousand shades.

Each fragrance is a complete shade with its own story. Together they form a palette of the human heart: from Taif 01–19 to the house classics Golden Oud, Classic Oud, Mood, Tobacco Honey and Velvet Soul. This is the soul of Taif Al Emarat.

The most precious memories are the ones we carry inside.

Some places stay with us long after we leave: not in photographs but in the heart, as peace, clarity and connection. The Mecca collection is born of this idea. Each fragrance is a vessel holding an emotion from that spiritual journey.

The bottle tells it too: a square with softened edges, black or white, a symbol of unity and calm direction. At its centre, a golden medallion with an engraved landmark and calligraphy recalling the ancient gates of the city. Fresh scents for a new beginning, deep oriental ones for devotion.

MUSK

True power does not raise its voice. It whispers.

An aura, a quiet confidence, a language that draws people in without a word. The Musk collection rests on this intimate foundation: each fragrance is a second skin, a personal signature of discreet elegance.

The starting point is always the clean canvas of white musk, reinterpreted through different lenses: herbal with rosemary, floral with iris and lotus, silky with Musk Hareer. Four ways of being present without seeking attention.

The double gold number on the black bottle, textured like a starry night, becomes a small ritual: choosing the hour you want to live. Ten moments, from accepting yourself at 08:08 to breaking old habits at 18:18.
